COMPREHENSIVE CARE IN TIMES OF CRISIS

THE CORPORAL WORKS OF MERCY AS MEDICAL PROFESSIONALS

Father Philip G. Bochanski, MDiv, MA

This presentation will explore the uniquely Christian foundation for healthcare which is rooted in a love for neighbor and a desire to cure when possible and care always for the whole patient.

GRAPPLING WITH MORAL DISTRESS IN TIMES OF CRISIS

Claudia R. Sotomayor, MD, DBe

This talk will explore moral distress and tools for medical professionals that can help them grapple with decisions made in crisis. It will explore the increasing epidemic of 'physician burnout' in medicine today and the need for 'self care', resources, and community in grappling with ethically and psycho-socially distressing situations.

HOPE AND COMPASSION AT THE FEET OF THOSE WHO SUFFER

Roland Millare, STD

This presentation will discuss the meaning of human suffering and how health care professionals can compassionately walk with patients at the end of life and bring hope to them and their families.

FRAMEWORK FOR ADDRESSING MENTAL HEALTH ISSUES IN MEDICINE

Francie Broghammer, MD

This presentation will explore the pivotal role of mental health in the care provided to patients.
