

TOGETHER IN HOLINESS™

Cancellation Policy

At this time, we remain hopeful that the Together in Holiness conference will take place as planned. Should circumstances change and the event be postponed, you will be notified as promptly as possible. In the event that the conference is postponed, all registered attendees will be offered a roll-over ticket or a full refund.

Refund Information

If you are no longer able to attend the conference, after purchasing your ticket, you may choose to transfer your registration fees to a scholarship couple in need, or request a refund.

All refunds must be requested 10 days prior to the conference. The last day to request a refund is Wednesday, September 16. All refund requests made on or after September 17 will not be accepted, but the funds will automatically be transferred to a scholarship couple in need.

Please email sara@forlifeandfamily.org to transfer your registration or request a refund.

At-Home Conference Attendees

For participants in our At-Home Conference Experience, all registrations submitted at least 10 days prior to the conference will receive a physical package of resources in the mail during the week leading up to the event. The last day to register and receive the physical package is Wednesday, September 16. All registrations submitted on or after September 17 will receive a digital package, with the same contents as the physical package.

Policy is subject to change; dependent on local, state, and Archdiocesan guidelines at the time of the conference*
