PRESENTATION DESCRIPTIONS

THE PERMANENT PRINCIPLE: A GREAT MARRIAGE LEADS TO GREAT EVANGELIZATION

Dominick Albano, Catholic Author and Speaker

You can be a great evangelist, and you don't need expert missionary training, advanced theological studies, or an exhaustive amount of time, energy, and attention to do it. By focusing on the things that matter most, evangelizing will become a part of who you are, rather than something you do. In this talk, we will explore what it means to really evangelize, how evangelization fits into your marriage, and get practical guidance on how to evangelize in your daily life.

A LOVE THAT SPREADS THE GOSPEL

Andrew and Mariana Cady, Parishioners at St. John the Baptist, Diocese of Corpus Christi

Ben and Beth Nguyen, Parishioners at the Cathedral of Our Lady of Walsingham

Parents are the primary teachers and evangelists in the domestic Church. This panel will highlight how the faith is passed down from one generation to another generation. A local family from two different generations will give witness to the value of receiving a firm foundation in the faith and how this impacts a future generation of believers. This panel will offer insight into the importance of developing faithful habits of prayer, formation, and evangelization within the home.

BECOMING WITNESSES TO THE JOY OF LOVE

Kevin and Lisa Cotter, Catholic Authors and Speakers

Family life and evangelization? In a world that often rejects traditional marriage and family, how can we use this great gift to reach others for Jesus and His Church? In this talk, Kevin and Lisa Cotter will give a foundational vision and practical tips for joyfully sharing the faith within the context of family life.
