

Vocations to marriage, the priesthood, and the consecrated life spring forth from families who joyfully seek to encounter the Lord. As we continue to foster all vocations within our diocese, I am delighted to welcome the sixth annual Together in Holiness marriage enrichment conference. Engaged and married couples who attend this conference will be encouraged in their own vocation to marriage while learning how to build a culture of faithful vocations within the domestic church of their family. I pray that many of you will join me for this wonderful event!
