PRESENTATION DESCRIPTIONS

THE FAMILY: A SCHOOL OF VIRTUE

Ryan Hanning, PhD, Fellow, St. John Paul II Foundation

What did St. Paul VI mean when he wrote the family is the “first school of the social virtues”? How can spouses foster virtue in their marriage? How can parents encourage their children’s growth in virtue, despite the culture’s contrary messages of selfishness, individualism, and immorality? Drawing upon wisdom from the Church, this talk will offer guidance for married couples and parents at various stages of parenting to overcome common obstacles to peace, balance, and joy in daily family life. The talk will remind married couples to focus on the beauty, joy, and privilege of the family’s unique call to be a school of virtue for the entire family.

THRIVING, NOT JUST SURVIVING: VIRTUES OF A JOYFUL MARRIAGE

Alan and Julie Ratliff

Married couples are called to thrive and not simply survive in the vocation of marriage. This presentation will examine how a couple can develop virtues to transform their marriage into a joyful vocation. This presentation will identify the causes of complacency in marriage that undermine its growth in virtue. There will be an emphasis on how married couples can become joyful through the ordinary ebbs and flows of married life.

HOLINESS AND THE RENEWAL OF THE CHURCH

Sister John Mary Sullivan, FSE, Executive Director, Franciscan Life Center

All people are called to become saints. St. Paul reminds the Church that God’s will is our sanctification (1 Thessalonians 4:3). This presentation will explore the importance of the universal call to holiness within the Church and how married couples, in accordance with their state of life, can answer this call. There will be a particular focus on how the sacrament of marriage offers spouses the grace to answer the call to holiness and what steps couples can take to respond generously to the call to holiness.
